

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Dear George:

Thank you for sharing your father's story. Each night, I read letters and emails from people like you, and hearing about such a broad range of experiences gives me insight into what's happening outside of Washington. These messages remind me of why I ran for this Office, and they keep me going as I work to make America's promise real for all our people.

Again, I appreciate your reaching out, and I wish you the very best.

Sincerely,

Barack Obama
